

Prior Learning Assessment Policy

For applicants to the Homeopathic Practitioner Program who do not meet the Admission Requirement of an Associate Degree, the following is available.

Individuals can receive up to 45 academic credits through the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) for life experience, work experience, and non-traditional coursework. if interested, apply directly to CAEL (www.CAEL.org).

PIHMA CPED will use official CAEL credit determination toward the Associate Degree Requirement.
